An interesting item about a Topeka man comes from New York, in the New York Herald of recent date. Dr. Sumner Everingham, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Everingham, has volunteered for service in the American Ambulance Hospital squad in Europe. He left New York lately, and his sister, Miss Ethel Everingham, has just received a letter from him, telling that the boat was getting ready to land its passengers in Liverpool. From England he will go to France, where he is detailed for service.

Dr. Everingham attended Washburn college some years ago, and later studied medicine at the Kansas State university. He then entered Columbia university, New York, where he was graduated in 1910. He has since been connected with the medical examina-

Before you buy any talking machine you should know ALL about ALL talking machines, then you yourself can recognize the superiority of the

Victrola and the OTHERS

All talking machines are wonderful. There are several makes. No two can be exactly the same in merit. There can be only ONE best and that ONE best is the one YOU want.

The Victrola is best. We have tested and sold several makes, now we sell the Victrola exclusively because WE KNOW it is best.

In a talking machine something must wear, in the Victrola it's the inexpensive needle, not the record.

Victrola records are thin, they are not veneered, hence do not split, peel, curl or slough off.

Victrola motors produce even movement, perfect rhythm and can be wound WHILE playing.

The Victor catalogue contains over 5,000 selections. Compare character and standing of Victor artists and number of titles and again you'll see why the Victrola is preferable.

We know the Victrola is superior to any other talking machine and it's your duty to prove for yourself this superiority by comparison.

Many, many evidences of superiority will be found if you are thorough in your investigation.

Come in and see our unequaled stock, our splendid service and get the benefit of the experience of a MUSIC house.

Miss Minnie Kietzman, and Dr. Homer Milton Sheldon, Who Were Married This Afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Wilhelmine Kietzman, the daughter of Mrs. Anna Kietzman, to Dr. Homer Milton Sheldon, of Kansas City, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sheldon, of 1025 Taylor street, took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. The service was read by Dr. S. S. Estey. There were no attendants, and the only guests were members of the Kietzman and Sheldon families.

The bride wore her traveling suit of nacre brown panne velvet. The coat had a collar of marten fur and the fur was used to trim the cuffs and the front of the jacket. The skirt had a fan tunic with folds forming a yoke. The bodice was of cream lace with outstanding lace collar. The hat matched the suit in color and was trimmed with pheasant feathers. The bride bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride graduated from the Topeka high school in the class of '08, and later attended Washburn college two years. Dr. Sheldon finished the high school course in 1906, and afterward went to Kansas City, where he entered the Kansas City Dental college, and was graduated two years ago. He is a Delta Sigma Delta fraternity man. He is now practicing dentistry in Kansas City with his brother, Dr. Frank E. Sheldon.

Dr. and Mrs. Sheldon left immediately after the ceremony for Kansas City, and will be at home to their many friends after December 1 at 2007 East Twenty-ninth street.

was a former Washburn college girl, Miss Laura Townsley, of Great Bend. Miss Townsley was one of the popular girls at the college during her student days, and she received the honor of having her name engraved on the loving cup for good scholarship. She was a member of the Sigma Delta Psi sorority, now the Kappa Alpha Theta.

She studied music at Washburn, and was one of the singers at last night's entertainment.

Miss Townsley was a dinner guest of Miss Margaret Pettyjohn last night at the E. S. Pettyjohn home in West Sixth avenue.

Miss Helen Estey will entertain the members of the Matinee Music club at their meeting Thursday afternoon. The program arranged for the day is made up of Debussy numbers, as follows:

Arabesque in E—Miss Helen Estey.
Il Teur Dans mon Coeur (The tears fall in my soul)—Mrs. Ralph Skinner.
Recluse in F (Suite Bergamasque)—Miss Alice Meade.

Evening Harmony—Mrs. Monte Kistler.
Jardin Four La Tiler; Arabesque in G—Miss Ida Tinker.

Romance—Mrs. Warwick Updegraff.

The Helianthus club will have its first dancing party of the season Thursday night at Kellam hall.

Mrs. Morton Albaugh and Mrs. George Godfrey Moore will be hostesses at a party Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Albaugh's home in Harrison street. The guests will be the members of the Minerva club, of which Mrs. Moore is president, and Mrs. Albaugh a past president, and they have also asked a number of friends outside the club.

Plans are being made for the Red Cross tea to be given Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 at the home of Mrs. F. L. Coffran by the women of the Good Government club. The officers of the club will be assisted in making the tea a success by the past presidents, Mrs. A. H. Horton, Dr. D. K. Longshore, Mrs. Lee Monroe, Mrs. Ward Burlingame, Mrs. J. P. Carnahan, Mrs. F. L. Sherman, and Miss Maud Mary Kline.

The first attraction on the Radcliffe Concert series will be given at the Grand Opera house Friday afternoon, October 23, at 4 o'clock.

In her dual capacity of operatic prima donna and concert singer, Mme. Johanna Gadski has won a lasting place in the hearts of American music lovers. The present season finds her at the pinnacle towards which she has moved steadily and surely since the very beginning of her public career—the acknowledged queen of lyric and dramatic song. She has been re-engaged for the Metropolitan Opera house for next season to sing the great Wagnerian roles with which her name is instinctively associated—and an increasing number of Italian roles which each season furnish fresh evidence of her art's constant growth. Her contract at the Metropolitan for next season calls for a larger number of appearances than ever before, thus placing further limitation upon the number of her concert appearances.

Musical lovers throughout the country who may not have an opportunity to attend the performance at the Metropolitan Opera house, will learn this with regret, for of all great celebrities associated with grand opera, none of them have ever attained such great popularity as Mme. Gadski, on the concert platform. The distinguished prima donna says if it were not for the fatigue and hardships to be endured in concert traveling, she would greatly prefer the concert engagements, as she feels she comes into more intimate and personal relation with her audience. Those who have had the privilege of hearing Gadski only in opera, especially in the heavy Wagnerian opera, which tax to the utmost the physical and vocal resources of an artist can have no idea how different and yet how delightful Mme. Gadski really is in her recital programs where she is given ample opportunity to display the wide and varied range of her vocal gifts.

Two Kansas people, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Miller, who have made this state their home since 1879, kept the festival of their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday.

A dinner party was given for them at noon at the home of their son, Mr. Harrison Miller, and Mrs. Miller. The decorations were in yellow, signifying the golden anniversary. The guests who attended the dinner, including the four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, their wives, and other relatives, were: Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Miller, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Miller, of St. Louis; Mrs. Rose Loomis, Mrs. Ed Smith and Mr. William E.

Crichton, of Laporte, Ind.; Mrs. Isabel Miller, Miss Nellie Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Tuill, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mr. C. M. Miller, of Denver; Mrs. Martha Crichton, of Chetopa, and Mrs. Philip Honan, of Gilman City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. George Crichton.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller came to this country from Scotland when they were children, and after the dinner yesterday Mrs. Ed Smith read a poem telling of the life of the family line, they left their native heath until the present. The verse was written in the Scotch dialect.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Miller gave a reception at their home, and several hundred guests attended. The people of Westminster church presented Mr. and Mrs. Miller with two golden oak rocking chairs, the Rev. Mr. Ralph Ward making the presentation speech. Mr. Miller's brother, Mr. C. M. Miller, of Denver, read a poem about the golden wedding anniversary, which was written by his daughter, Miss Marie J. Miller, of Denver. He presented Mrs. Miller with a bride's bouquet, which was a replica of the bouquet she carried when she was married fifty years ago. The men of the party all wore the buttonhole bouquets fashionable at that time.

During the evening the old fashioned dances and various Scotch steps were danced, and the old people sang the Scotch songs they had known in their youth. Mrs. Miller was presented with an original volume of "Life and Poetry" of Robert Burns, which was brought from Scotland a good many years ago. Mr. William E. Crichton, Mrs. Miller's eldest brother, who is 82 years of age, gave her a Bible which was given to him before he came to this country.

The Square and Compass club gave the second dance of their series at Kellam hall last evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dyal, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Price, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilton, Dr. and Mrs. P. O. Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kuehne, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spreng, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Doney, Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tallman, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Steinhilber, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Edel-Gute, Mr. and Mrs. Guy D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Holland, Miss Mildred Heere, Miss Mabel Mosley, Miss Emma Ruppel, Miss Nan Reice of Palm Beach, Fla., Miss Madeline Mull, Miss Hazel Mull, Miss Davis, Miss Julia Schmidt, Miss Sharp, Miss Jessie Mae Umpleby, Miss Lucile Umpleby, Miss Ruth Wright, Miss Iva Wilson, Mr. Fred Kuehne, Mr. Fred Gades, Mr. W. L. Lyon, Mr. O. W. Boyer, Mr. Jake Friedman, Mr. Herbert Clark, Mr. E. B. Whitmore, Mr. G. C. Helm, Mr. Kenneth Barber, Mr. A. D. Schnacke, Mr. E. D. Gilboe, Mr. Neale Wright, Mr. George E. Anderson, Mr. Nate Thompson.

Mrs. J. C. Gafford and Mrs. M. C. Hamnatt will entertain the Monday Whist club next Monday at the Country club.

Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Cook and Miss Florence Cook will be guests of honor at an informal reception to be given Friday evening at the First Christian church by the members of the congregation. Dr. Cook is the new pastor, succeeding Dr. Charles Finn, and he and his family will live at 1102 West Sixth avenue.

There are two sons and two daughters in the Cook family: Miss Florence Cook, who will be at home this winter; the Rev. Mr. Leland Cook, who lives at Livingston, Tenn.; Miss Nellie Cook, who teaches in a college in Livingston, and Mr. Howard Cook, who is a singing evangelist.

The art class taught by Mrs. L. D. Whittemore will omit the meeting for this week.

Mrs. Harold Chase was hostess at a meeting of the Duplicate Whist club this afternoon. Mrs. George Parkhurst and Mrs. Arthur Nichols played for absent members.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Myers will entertain their bridge-dinner club tonight.

Mrs. O. J. Shannon entertained the Recreation club Tuesday afternoon at her home in Polk street. The guests were Mrs. James Cuthbert, Mrs. George McCoy, Mrs. W. E. Barrie, Mrs. J. A. Cook, Mrs. F. M. Drake, Mrs. K. T. P. Johnson, Mrs. H. D. Gorse, Mrs. C. S. Powell, Mrs. Roy Allen, Mrs. J. P. Kelly and Mrs. C. L. Ransom.

The members of the First German M. E. church gave a party to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of the Rev. Mr. A. J. Ross and Mrs. Ross. The party was a surprise to the guests of honor, and their friends arrived at their home during their absence. They decorated the table and prepared the dinner. Gifts brought for Mr. and Mrs. Ross were presented by Mr. G. Urban, who made an informal address, responded to by the Rev. Mr. Ross and Mrs. Ross.

BAD FOR THE WOMEN
Governor Dunne Says Poor Roads Contribute to Mind Disorders.
Chicago, Oct. 21.—Experts in mental ailments agree that rural isolation, due to bad roads, is a serious factor in inflicting disorders of the mind on women. Governor Dunne told the Association of Commerce in an address today, "Illinois is scandalously and deplorably in the background in good roads work as compared with other states," said the governor.
"Of the 55,000 miles of roads in the state only 10 per cent are improved in a permanent manner while in Indiana 35 per cent are improved, in Kentucky 20 per cent, in Ohio 25 per cent and in Massachusetts 50 per cent are improved.
"Poor roads hinder crop production and distribution, keep the rural customer away from marketing in the village stores, keep pupils from school, impair the efficiency of social, moral and fraternal organizations which depend largely on public assemblies for their work and the consequent loneliness of the farm, not only depresses the woman but drives the young people to the cities."
